Your Submitted Press Release

Miami, Florida, United States, 30th Oct 2025 — Andrew Borysenko, CEO of FinanceWorld.io and an experienced trader since 2014, is proud to announce the launch of a holistic wealth management ecosystem crafted for investors aiming to achieve robust returns while maintaining disciplined risk management. FinanceWorld.io unites individuals and institutions under one platform, providing access to real-time market insights, portfolio tracking, risk analysis, and a vibrant investor community, supported by global partnerships across Europe, Asia, and North America.

With over a decade in financial markets and more than 25,000 hours of hands-on trading and research, Borysenko brings together six critical roles—Trader, Asset Manager, Hedge Fund Manager, Wealth Manager, Family Office Manager, and FinTech Business Leader—into a seamlessly connected financial ecosystem.

A One-Stop Solution for Modern Wealth Management

FinanceWorld.io is designed to be a central hub for data-driven investing, offering professional-grade tools and actionable guidance that cater to investors at all stages of their financial journey.

The ecosystem includes:

- FinanceWorld: A FinTech platform offering manual trading signals, in-depth market commentary, and educational resources across stocks, forex, and crypto.
- FinanAds: A financial advertising agency connecting finance brands with highly qualified audiences.
- Andrew Borysenko Investment Podcasts: In-depth interviews with leading innovators and experts in FinTech and investment, covering strategies, risk, and market trends.

“We created this ecosystem so investors can move beyond fragmented tools and start compounding their capital with confidence,” said Borysenko. “Our philosophy is simple: drive wealth growth through smart risk. Control the controllable, manage what you can’t, and let time and discipline pay off.”

A Strategy Centered on Growth and Risk Control

The FinanceWorld.io methodology focuses on structured, transparent, and disciplined wealth building. Borysenko and his team emphasize proactive risk management, transparent progress tracking, and steady compounding—not reckless leverage.

Key client benefits include:

- Growing capital with a focus on high-risk-adjusted returns
- Maintaining control through rigorous portfolio oversight
- Achieving steady, repeatable progress with proven processes

Typical onboarding includes three steps:

- Defining starting capital (from $30,000 and up)
- Registering with an approved prime broker partner
- Connecting to the master account for real-time tracking

“While many hedge funds target 10–30% per year, we aim for 100–150% annualized returns—always with discipline and a max drawdown target near 15%,” Borysenko notes. “It’s ambitious but not guaranteed; markets are unpredictable, which is why risk management always comes first.”

Investor Education: The 3-Year Blueprint

To further support clients, Borysenko is releasing his free book, *The 3-Year Blueprint from \$30,000 to \$3,000,000*. The guide features:

- Concrete strategies and real-world case studies
- Risk management frameworks
- Psychological tools for maintaining discipline
- Portfolio diversification tactics

Global Reach, Local Expertise

Powered by partners throughout Europe, the UK, Asia, Oceania, and North America—including key cities like London, Paris, Dubai, Singapore, Hong Kong, New York, and Toronto — FinanceWorld.io ensures 24/7 market visibility and access to on-the-ground knowledge for cross-border investors, family offices, and private banks.

Performance Transparency

The platform highlights self-reported monthly performance data, including years with triple-digit returns and cumulative multi-strategy results. While performance targets are ambitious, FinanceWorld.io emphasizes that results vary depending on market conditions and adherence to risk parameters.

“Transparency is our standard,” adds Borysenko. “We openly share our ideas, signals, tools, and methodology—giving investors immediate insight, not retroactive explanations.”

Who Should Join

- High-net-worth individuals seeking compounding and risk clarity
- Family offices planning for multiple generations
- Private banks and wealth managers interested in FinTech integrations
- Serious self-directed traders seeking reliable signals and robust strategy frameworks

Media, Education, and Community

The Andrew Borysenko Podcast connects listeners to top FinTech experts and professional financial specialists, exploring innovation, data science, risk, and more.

“Markets run 24/7, but investors shouldn’t have to. That’s why we build disciplined systems—so clients can focus on what matters most in their lives,” says Borysenko.
