invstg today announced the official launch of its groundbreaking platform designed to revolutionize how real estate investors access and capitalize on off-market property opportunities.

The invstg platform addresses crucial pain points in the real estate investment ecosystem by creating a centralized marketplace where investors can discover properties before they reach public markets, eliminating bidding wars and maximizing value for all parties involved.

"Finding an off-market property just got easier," said Matt Stravitz, Co-Founder of invstg. "Our platform connects deal finders directly with qualified investors, eliminating bidding wars and maximizing value for both parties."

The innovative platform arrives at a critical time when investors seek alternatives to competitive on-market transactions. invstg offers a comprehensive solution that combines deal discovery with powerful analytical tools and networking capabilities.

Key features of the invstg platform include:

- Curated off-market property listings across various real estate sectors
- User feedback and rating systems to build trust and transparency
- Secure messaging for confidential deal discussions
- Built-in deal calculators and investment analysis tools
- AI-powered listing enhancement to maximize deal attractiveness
- Real-time notifications for saved search criteria and new listings
- Joint venture matching to connect investors with ideal partners
- Funding opportunities for deals
- Achievement system that gamifies the investment experience

"We created invstg with buyer/seller feedback systems, access to funding opportunities, a network of potential partners to collaborate and joint venture with, tools for buyers and sellers, advanced AI integration, personalized customer service, and so much more," added Stravitz.

invstg offers flexible membership options to accommodate various investor needs:

- Basic plan ($9.99/month) for investors looking to view and make offers on deals
- Premium plan ($39.99/month) including two monthly listings and comprehensive tools
- Business plan ($69.99/month) with five monthly listings and premium support

The platform is designed for real estate investors, wholesalers, disposition managers, transactional lenders, and anyone seeking off-market opportunities. New users can experience invstg through a 7-day free trial.
