Your Submitted Press Release

Dongguan, China — 31th Dec 2025— Prenego, a manufacturer specializing in neoprene products, announced the expansion of its OEM and ODM manufacturing services to support growing demand from outdoor and active-lifestyle brands in the United States and Europe.with expanded capabilities coming in 2026.

Co-founded by Frank Zhang, Prenego works with brands to develop and manufacture neoprene soft goods used across outdoor, sports, and water-based applications. The company provides product development support alongside scalable production, with an emphasis on consistent quality, lead-time control, and export-ready manufacturing.

“Outdoor brands in the U.S. and Europe are under pressure to shorten development cycles while maintaining product performance,” said Frank Zhang, Co-Founder of Prenego. “Our focus is on building production capacity and processes that support long-term programs starting in 2026.”

Outdoor-Focused Neoprene Production

Prenego’s current production capabilities include:

- Neoprene outdoor and travel bags, including backpacks, totes, duffle bags, and lunch bags
- Sports and outdoor accessories such as bottle sleeves and protective cases
- Water-sports products, including wetsuits and life jackets
- Custom private-label neoprene products developed to brand specifications

Products are manufactured for use in demanding outdoor environments and aligned with quality expectations commonly required by U.S. and European markets.

OEM and ODM Manufacturing Support

Prenego offers OEM and ODM services covering:

- Product design coordination and material selection
- Prototype and sample development
- Logo application and packaging customization
- Production management and quality inspection

The planned 2026 expansion is intended to help brand partners shorten development cycles while maintaining consistent production standards.

Serving Global Outdoor Brands

Prenego continues to invest in manufacturing processes and communication workflows to support long-term partnerships with outdoor brands in North America and Europe.
