Your Submitted Press Release

Royal York Property Management announced it has expanded operations to serve landlords in more than 40 cities and communities across Ontario. The Toronto-based company now provides residential property management services throughout the province, from Windsor to Ottawa and from Niagara Falls to Barrie.

"Ontario landlords have been asking us to expand beyond the GTA for years," said Nathan Levinson, Founder and CEO of Royal York Property Management. "Our technology platform and operational systems work the same way everywhere. A landlord in London gets the same level of service as a landlord in downtown Toronto."

Service areas now include Toronto and the Greater Toronto Area, Ottawa, Hamilton, London, Kitchener-Waterloo, Cambridge, Guelph, Windsor, St. Catharines, Niagara Falls, Barrie, Kingston, Brantford, Peterborough, Belleville, and communities across Durham, Peel, York, Halton, and Niagara regions.

Royal York Property Management provides tenant placement, rent collection, maintenance coordination, legal compliance services, and financial reporting to residential property owners.
